

YET YOU DO NOT EVEN KNOW WHAT
TOMORROW WILL BRING.

What is your life?

FOR YOU ARE A MIST THAT APPEARS FOR A LITTLE WHILE AND THEN VANISHES.

Prelude

Call to Worship Revelation 15:3-4, NIV

Leader: Great and marvelous are your deeds, Lord God Almighty.

People: Just and true are your ways, King of the nations.

Leader: Who will not fear you, Lord, and bring glory to your name?

Everyone: For you alone are holy. All nations will come and worship before you.

& House of the Lord

Old Testament Reading – Psalm 27 (NLT) A psalm of David.

1 The Lord is my light and my salvation—

so why should I be afraid? The Lord is my fortress, protecting me from danger, so why should I tremble?

2 When evil people come to devour me, when my enemies and foes attack me, they will stumble and fall.

3 Though a mighty army surrounds me, my heart will not be afraid. Even if I am attacked, I will remain confident.

4 The one thing I ask of the Lord—the thing I seek most—is to live in the house of the Lord all the days of my life, delighting in the Lord's perfections and meditating in his Temple.

5 For he will conceal me there when troubles come; he will hide me in his sanctuary. He will place me out of reach on a high rock.

6 Then I will hold my head high above my enemies who surround me. At his sanctuary I will offer sacrifices with shouts of joy, singing and praising the Lord with music.

7 Hear me as I pray, O Lord. Be merciful and answer me!

8 My heart has heard you say, "Come and talk with me."

And my heart responds, "Lord, I am coming."

9 Do not turn your back on me. Do not reject your servant in anger. You have always been my helper. Don't leave me now; don't abandon me, O God of my salvation!

10 Even if my father and mother abandon me, the Lord will hold me close.

11 Teach me how to live, O Lord. Lead me along the right path, for my enemies are waiting for me.

12 Do not let me fall into their hands. For they accuse me of things I've never done; with every breath they threaten me with violence.

13 Yet I am confident I will see the Lord's goodness while I am here in the land of the living.

14 Wait patiently for the Lord. Be brave and courageous. Yes, wait patiently for the Lord.

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name, Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. July Mission of the Month - Special Olympics of New Jersey (SONJ)

In the 1950s and 1960s, Eunice Kennedy Shriver took note of the unjust treatment given to those with intellectual disabilities and decided to hold a summer day camp in her own backyard to focus on their abilities in sports and other activities. In the late 1960s sports programs were started in Bordentown and Bayonne, and in 1969 NJ participated in its first Eastern Regional Special Olympics at the University of Maryland. Thus Special Olympics of New Jersey was born. Their mission is "to provide year-round sports training and athletic competition in a variety of Olympic-type sports for children and adults with intellectual disabilities, giving them continuing opportunities to develop physical fitness, demonstrate courage, experience joy and participate in a sharing of gifts, skills and friendship with their families, other Special Olympics athletes and the community". With contributions from corporations, communities and individuals, and with help from many volunteers, SONJ is able to provide training and competition for 24 sports across all four seasons of the year free of charge. Contributions can provide things such as basketballs, Young Athlete play-at-home kits, uniforms, and even free health screenings.

Please consider supporting the Special Olympics of New Jersey. You can write checks to the church, and/or use the Missions envelopes, and note that your contribution is for the July Mission of the Month. Thank you. //www.sonj.org/

Confession of Faith: Belgic Confession | Article 13

We believe that this good God,
after creating all things,
did not abandon them to chance or fortune
but leads and governs them according to his holy will,
in such a way that nothing happens in this world
without God's orderly arrangement.

Yet God is not the author of,
and cannot be charged with,
the sin that occurs.

For God's power and goodness are so great and incomprehensible that God arranges and does his works very well and justly even when the devils and the wicked act unjustly.

We do not wish to inquire with undue curiosity into what God does that surpasses human understanding and is beyond our ability to comprehend.

But in all humility and reverence
we adore the just judgments of God,
which are hidden from us,
being content to be Christ's disciples,
so as to learn only what God shows us in the Word,
without going beyond those limits.
